3. What will be the biggest issue facing the city in 2020, and how do you plan to address it? Recent changes that will penalize business and government entities that fail to recognize choices made by those in some communities.
4. What will be your top priorities in office? Repealing those changes. Ensuring the city is run in a fiscally responsible way.
5. What is one thing that the city council is currently doing that you think is good, and why do you support it? The city does a very nice job with its 5-year budget.
6. How do you work with others when differing opinions are involved? Extremely well. I look for a compromise solution without compromising my principles.
7. With your magic wand, what is the first thing that you would change in the City? Repeal the recent LGBTQ ordinance. It is contrary to the will of the majority of residents of Medina and extremely bad for business.
8. How do you balance the needs of your business constituents against the needs of residents? Do you see any challenges there? Treat every situation individually. The vocal minority, whether business or residents, should not trump common sense or alter my principles.
